

Ye Olde Imprv Competition

Step by Step

Step #1

Create and organize your troupe.

Find four to six students who are interested and show talent in improvisation. Assign a troupe captain to run rehearsals.

Step #2

Fill out a registration form.

Visit Off the Cuff's website otccomedy.com and fill out the registration form. Email the form to secure your troupe's spot in the competition.

Step #3

Practice, practice, practice!

Schedule a regular rehearsal time with your troupe. Go to otccomedy.com for instructional videos and explanations of the eligible games. On the website you can also find out how Off the Cuff can come to your school to workshop directly with your troupe.

Step #4

Perform, perform, perform!

Perform with your troupe as often as possible. It will help your troupe adjust to playing in front of an audience.

Step #5

The Friday morning meeting.

Attend the meeting on Friday October 9, 2009 to find out the final three games, what time your troupe will perform, and what room the competition will be held in.

Step #6

Check in with stage manager.

Show up on Saturday at least thirty minutes prior to your performance time with your final list of players and check in with the stage manager.

Step #7

Performance

Each troupe will have twenty minutes on deck, five minutes of set up time, fifteen minutes of performance, and five minutes of verbal feedback from the judges.

Step #7

Awards

Come to the award ceremony on Saturday October 10th at 7pm to see if your troupe has won an award!
